President's Message:

Fellow Compatriots, DAR Daughters & Friends...

It is with pride and humility that I again assume the office of President of the Palm Beach Chapter Sons of the American Revolution.

The Chapter's 2022 Vision is to perpetuate the ideals of our nation's founders, as true and selfless servants of individual Freedom, and a country of laws encapsulated in the Constitution and Bill of Rights for a republic Of, By and For the People.

We will continue to model our core beliefs that our country and SAR were founded upon, especially, honoring those who serve our community and teach the next generation that freedom has come at a great price and is easily lost.

I respectfully call on all Compatriots and DAR Daughters to support your Officers in achieving these goals by giving of your time on our many committees and civic activities.

Compatriots are requested to attend all of our meetings, and to schedule time to join your Officers at the State Board of Management meeting May 7th in Orlando where many important decisions regarding our State society will be made. It's critical to have our voices heard on important issues at this meeting.

Join us on February 15 to honor His Excellency George Washington's Birthday and welcome back, by popular demand, President Thomas Jefferson! Compatriot and Former PB Chapter President John Stewart will entertain us with his encore presentation as the dynamic Founding Father, President Thomas Jefferson.

John has been interested in the life of Thomas Jefferson since he was a student at the University of Virginia and has lectured on Jefferson's life and his influence on American History to students, youth and civic groups, and business audiences for 30+ years.

President Jefferson is portrayed in the dress, language, and speaking style of the 1700s, so we're sure to be entertained by John's convincing portrayal of our 3rd President while benefiting from his extensive knowledge of Jefferson's personal life, especially his leadership with all of our Founding Fathers.

A special highlight of the presentation takes the form of an audience Q & A, structured much like a modern day Presidential Press Conference! So don't be afraid to ask any question of our 3rd President!

Washington's Weapons Guns, Swords & Uniforms

Researched & Compiled by Don Lanman

While serving as both a British Colonial Militia Officer and as the Revolutionary War Commanding General, Washington owned many weapons of war.

The following is a review of his most notable weapons, and accoutrements used over the course of his long and distinguished career from a colonial militia commander in the 1750s all the way to commander in chief of the American army during the Quasi-War with France in 1798-1799.

Braddock Sword: Washington wore this sword while an aide to Major General Edward Braddock during the French and Indian War.

War Trophy: Washington's correspondence includes dozens of references to pistols purchased, lost, captured, and received as gifts. This brace of pistols, made in London c. 1780, were captured during the Revolution.

Braddock Pistol: Washington highly prized this English pistol, one of a pair originally given to him by General Braddock in 1755.

Dress Sword: Washington owned several jewel-like, lightweight weapons. This ornately engraved three-sided hollow blade, is distinguished by being depicted in Charles Willson Peale's 1772 portrait of Washington as a Virginia Colonel, as well as several of Charles Willson Peale's Revolutionary War portraits of Washington. Washington is also believed to have worn it when he resigned his commission as commander in chief in Annapolis in 1783 and when inaugurated as our nation's first president on April 30, 1789.

Lafayette Epee: This Model 1767 French officer's epée was a special gift from the Marquis de Lafayette to George Washington. It was found in his Study after his death. Family tradition maintained it was George Washington's "mourning" sword during his life.

Battle Sword: Washington wore this American-made, ivory-hilted hanger or cuttose as his battle sword during the Revolutionary War. It appears in several portraits of the commander in chief by Charles Wilson Peale.

Washington's Uniform Gorget: Washington wore this gorget, a symbolic remnant of a suit of armor, around his throat as part of the militia uniform he wore to the Continental Congress in 1775. The gorget is engraved with the coat of arms of the colony of Virginia.

Honor Spurs: During the Continental Army's grueling winter encampment at Valley Forge, Washington inspired his men through simple gestures. These included giving the spurs on his boots to Lieutenant Thomas Lamb, who volunteered to ride to Boston to request supplies.

Officers Eagle Cockade: In 1798, rising tensions with France and concern over his own inadequacy in military matters led President John Adams to appoint Washington as lieutenant general and commander in chief of a new American army.

The army remained on paper only, but during the initial preparations, Washington designed a new insignia for commissioned officers.
